E. C. (JOHNNIE) JOHNSON

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2003

A Resolution on the death of the Honorable E. C. (Johnnie) Johnson.

A former member of the House of Representatives, Johnnie Johnson, died at the age of sixty-seven years.

Ellison Carroll (Johnnie) Johnson, a Legislator from Parker, Arizona, served in the Arizona House from 1951 to 1954. He served as Vice Chairman of the Fish and Game Committee and on the Highways and Bridges and Public Lands Committees.

Johnnie Johnson was born in Alma, Arkansas on January 19, 1912 and came to Arizona in 1935. His parents were Walter H. and Beatrice Wilson Johnson, and he married Frances Analla in Las Vegas, Nevada in 1939. They had two children, Marilyn and Walter.

Johnnie Johnson was educated at Paestel Elementary School and Weatherford High School and Junior College in Texas.

Representative Johnson, a Democrat, worked with the United States Indian Service and was successful at business in operating an automobile dealership and garage.

In his many years in Arizona, he was an active community member having served on the Parker Elementary School Board and as a Parker Fire District Chief.

In addition, Johnnie Johnson was a member of El Zaribah Shrine Temple in Phoenix, the Parker Rodeo Association, Parker Rod and Gun Club and the Lions.

Johnnie will be dearly missed by family, his many friends and associates in Arizona.

Therefore

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Arizona:

That having learned of the death of Representative Johnnie Johnson, the House of Representatives of the State of Arizona wishes to express its deep regret and extend its condolences to the surviving members of his family.

Adopted by the House, April 9, 1980.

Filed in the Office of the Secretary of State, April 9, 1980.
